REPORT
OF THE
SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

THE Superintending School Committee submit the following Report :

DISTRICT NO. I.

Prudential Committee—George T. Wheeler, Samuel Converse, Ebenezer Fairbanks.

First Department.—Summer Term. Teacher, Miss CHARLOTTE McCoy. The teacher of the Summer term of this school has a well established reputation as a competent and successful instructress of our town schools. This promised well, but the illness of the teacher brought the term to a premature close, so there could be no formal examination. We judge, however, by what we saw during the eight weeks of school, that good progress was made by the various classes.

Winter Term. Teacher, MR. EZRA M. SMITH. The Winter term was less successful than could have been desired. The afternoon singing school took away large numbers of the scholars from many of their recitations, which was a decided injury to the school. And we are very sorry to be obliged to say, that some of the boys seemed disposed to make disturbance in various ways, during the term. Nearly all the young ladies, and several of the young gentlemen, were studious and orderly, and consequently manifested fine scholarship at the examination.—

Mr. Smith is a good, faithful teacher, but he evidently failed in a successful government of the school. Good order, we think, is indispensable to real success in any school.

Second Department.—Summer term. Teacher, Miss FLORA A. DODGE. Too much can hardly be said in praise of the excellent management of this school. Through unwearied application, consumate energy, and careful, intelligent instruction, she who had it in charge accomplished results which would do honor to any school or any teacher. The district are laid under great obligations to Miss Dodge for the character she gave to the school. Her instructions will not soon be lost or forgotten. Such superior mental discipline and perfect government, and rapid improvement, as were the unmistakable characteristics of this school, and its great charm, are inestimable.

Fall Term. Miss DODGE was to teach the same school this term, and commenced her labors, but in the second week unfortunately was obliged, through ill-health, to relinquish her charge. Miss MARIETTA TARBOX was engaged to succeed her,—a very embarrassing and difficult task, but as well and satisfactorily performed as could be expected. Her examination developed many good features in the school, showing faithful effort on her part.

Winter term. Teacher, Miss MARY A. EASTMAN. It was determined to try the experiment of a female teacher in this department this term, suitable male teachers being very scarce. The experiment was a success. Miss Eastman did not lack the necessary qualifications for governing such a school, and we have no occasion to complain of its management in this respect. On the other hand the order of the school was well maintained to the last. Her instruction, though not of the most practical order, was careful and in some points superior.

Third Department. Both the Summer and Fall terms of this school were taught by Mrs. E. J. HALE, who has for several years had the charge of this school. Mrs. Hale brings patience, enthusiasm, and perseverance,—qualities so much needed in a teacher of youth,—to her work; and she has met with great success this year. May she long be retained, with increased pay, as a teacher in this department.

DISTRICT NO. II.

Prudential Committee—Mr. John Upton, 2d.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss MARTHA R. WILDER. The Summer term of this school was 14 weeks long. Number of scholars 43; average, 32. The teacher was well qualified for her position, and the school was eminently successful.

Winter Term. Teacher, Mr. WILLIAM MOORE. The length of the Winter term was only 9 weeks. Whole number of scholars, 46; average attendance, 39½. Mr. Moore is a very good and successful teacher. The term was shorter than was anticipated, so there was not time to develop very fully the capacities of teacher or scholars. There are some fine scholars in this school, especially in mathematics. All did well at the examination.

DISTRICT NO. III.

Prudential Committee—Mr. Franklin Mears.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss SARAH E. FROST. The order of this school was good. A high degree of success crowned the efforts of the teacher. She was a good disciplinarian and “apt to teach.” The examination evinced thorough instruction, and diligence on the part of the scholars.

Winter Term. Teacher, Mr. STEPHEN A. SAWYER. The order of this school was excellent. Mr. Sawyer is a man of rare enthusiasm, and has had a good degree of experience as a teacher in our common schools. This is one of our best schools in every respect. We found here good scholars, excellent habits of study, and strict discipline. The instruction was thorough and the government of the school eminently judicious.

DISTRICT NO. IV.

Prudential Committee—Goodyear Bassett.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss ELLEN R. BADGER. The only defect in this school was a want of life. It did not have enough of the positive character. The teacher possessed ample qualifications, gained the affection of her scholars, and exhibited commendable results at the end of the term. The smaller scholars improved finely. But there was a lack of enthusiasm in the school, owing, not to a want of faithfulness, but to a want of force in the teacher.

Fall Term. Teacher, Miss SARAH A. BRACKETT. A very commendable interest was manifested in this school by all concerned. Miss B. labored with her usual zeal, and sustained her well-grounded reputation as a good teacher. The scholars all made good progress in their studies and especially in their mathematical studies, during the term. The school was larger than usual, owing to the fact that several scholars out of the district were permitted by the Prudential Committee to avail themselves of its advantages. Not a single instance of tardiness or dismissal occurred during the term, which speaks well for the parents.

DISTRICT NO. V.

Prudential Committee—John S. Treadwell.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss ELLEN R. BADGER. The Summer term was 12 weeks long. Whole number of scholars, 9; average attendance, a fraction over 7. Good improvement was made by all the scholars, who attended regularly.

Winter Term. Teacher, Mr. CHARLES S. PIERCE. The Winter term was rather short. Only 9 weeks. Number of scholars, 7; average,  $5\frac{1}{2}$ . This was the first experience in teaching with Mr. Pierce. The school, though very small, showed at the examination that he had been successful in his efforts. Very decided improvement was made by several of the scholars.

DISTRICT NO. VI.

Prudential Committee—Mr. B. W. Crosby.

Summer and Winter Terms. Teacher, Miss AUGUSTA F. AMES. The Summer term was of eleven weeks duration. Whole number of scholars, 29; average attendance, near 27. Winter term, twelve weeks. Number of scholars, 30; average, 24. This is a good school. The scholars, some of them, at least, excel in reading and spelling. The teacher has had much successful experience in her calling, previous to these terms. Yet, there seemed to be a slight want of the positive character in this school. The examinations were, however, as a whole, creditable to teacher and scholars.

DISTRICT NO. VII.

Prudential Committee—German Day.

First Term. Teacher, Miss ELLEN FORBUSH. This was a live, earnest school. The teacher imparted her own enthusiasm and love of learning to her scholars, whose ready knowledge at the examination gave evidence of strenuous application throughout the term. A decided and very visible improvement on the part of the scholars, was the natural result of such good discipline as they received, and such thorough work as they made with their studies.

Fall Term. Same teacher, and like results.

Winter Term. The district were wise in continuing Miss Forbush's services through this term also. The school did not suffer from being taught by a female, but gained from being permitted to finish up, and round off a work so well begun. With the exception of too much whispering and uneasiness in the seats, the examination was satisfactory.

DISTRICT NO. VIII.

Prudential Committee—Mr. Joel Hadley.

Summer and Winter Terms. Teacher, Miss SARAH A. FLETCHER. This was the first attempt at teaching school by this teacher. Miss Fletcher is a good scholar, and succeeded much better than do many in their first attempts at school teaching. There was on her part, however, a want of enthusiasm, which perhaps was more than made up by the natural enthusiasm and aptness to learn on the part of the scholars. Some of the smaller scholars showed a very commendable degree of progress.

DISTRICT NO. IX.

Prudential Committee—John Wilder.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss SARAH A. BRACKETT. This school was not examined, the teacher being obliged to close it suddenly before the end of the term. But judging from its appearance at the commencement, the statements of the Register, and the known ability of the teacher, we conclude it must have been a highly profitable school.

Fall Term. Teacher, Mrs. E. MARIA HADLEY. We never saw more improvement made during one term than was manifested at the close of the term, by the nineteen children, all under ten, of this school.

Winter Term. Teacher, Mr. GEORGE MOORE. The teacher of this school labored hard to bring it up to a high standard of scholarship. He gained the respect of his scholars, and the es-team of the district. But the examination with a few exceptions failed to elicit that intelligence and activity of mind which we had hoped to see. One capital merit to be mentioned is, that five of the largest scholars, by a self-imposed restraint, abstained entirely from whispering during the term, and by their exemplary conduct otherwise helped the teacher in his arduous labors.

DISTRICT NO. X.

Prudential Committee—Capt. S. Carey.

Summer Term. Teacher, Miss MARY A. EASTMAN. Miss Eastman was a successful teacher of this school. She has had a large experience in teaching, and the examination evinced industry on her part and progress on the part of the scholars.

Winter Term. Teacher, Miss MARY O. CHANDLER. Miss Chandler has had some experience as a teacher and is a very fair scholar. Though but one half of this school, of four scholars, were present at the examination; yet, those two scholars appeared well and showed progress. The teacher seemed to have done what, in her judgment seemed best for this school. Good government is necessary for our smallest schools, and some enthusiasm must be awakened in the scholars, in order to secure the happiest results.

CONCLUSION.

YOUR Committee are happy to say that they notice with much pleasure, an increased attention paid by the parents generally, to our schools. The teacher needs, in order to be most successful, the faithful co-operation of the parents. We would urge upon those parents who may have been somewhat remiss in their duties, in any respect, to either teacher or scholars, to uphold most persistently and cordially the teacher in his efforts to benefit those given to his care in the school room.

LIBRARY REPORT.

The Committee on the Town Library, having attended to their duty, submit the following Annual Report:—

No. of Volumes reported last year,	1968
Added during the year,	85
2053

Worn out during the year,	17
Taken and paid for for detention,	1
18

No. of Volumes now in the Library,	2035
------------------------------------	------

Seventy-two volumes have been added by purchase during the year. Eight have been presented by the Librarian, three by Hon. E. H. Rollins, and one each by Miss Anna C. Payson, and George Livermore, Esq., of Cambridge, Mass.

The following are the numbers thrown out as worthless: 190—191 581—582—586—588—590—591—1366—1367—1376—1391—1392—1404 1444—1568—1746—1866.

The amount of fines assessed during the year and remaining unpaid at this date is $4 04. Amount collected during the year $8 36. There is also still due (from five individuals) for fines assessed by the former Librarian, the sum of $12 86. This money is needed for the replenishing of the Library and we know of no reason why it should not be paid. Every book taken from the Library contains a printed copy of the By Laws, and those failing to comply with their requirements certainly cannot plead ignorance of their provisions. We cannot think these persons will continue to allow their families to be deprived of the benefit of the Library, rather than pay the penalty of their negligence.

The financial condition of the Library is as follows:

Cash received of last year's Committee,	$42 42
"    "    " the town,	45 00
"    "    " Librarian for fines,	8 36
"    "    " R Forbush for fines,	1 63
"    "    " for sale of old books, &c.,	2 26

Whole amount received,	$99 67
Paid for new books,	$63 30
"    " binding,	6 70
"    " express, postage, and incidentals	1 48-- $71 48
$28 19

The committee would recommend an increased appropriation for the benefit of the Library. Many volumes of standard works are wearing out and will soon have to be replaced, and the advanced price of books renders it impossible, with the usual sum, to make such additions as are absolutely needed from year to year. The efficiency with which the present Librarian has performed his duties we think deserving of commendation. Every volume on the catalogue has been properly accounted for by him—a rare occurrence, we believe, during the recent history of the Library.

All of which is respectfully submitted:
